Another
Ring Success Story

Thanks to video evidence shared through the Neighbors Portal, a community in Florida has one less criminal on the street.

Christian Esteban Sepulveda was arrested on August 15 for suspected arson. Winter Park Police submitted a video request to the 2000 block of Middleton Avenue and within an hour, they received video of the suspect stealing from a nearby home.

The video helped local police tack on an additional charge for theft. Now, Sepulveda is being held without bail on five counts of burglary, two counts of arson and five additional charges. All thanks to diligent police work, active citizens and the Neighbors Portal.
